APRIL REPORT

CO-HATY HOUSING NEAR KAMIANETS-PODILSKYI IS COMPLETED!

In April, we finished the renovation and furnishing of the former dormitory in Zinkivtsi, and the first residents have already moved in.

WHICH WORKS DID THE RENOVATION OF ZINKIVTSI DORMITORY INCLUDE?

This building had not been used for 20 years, so there were many tasks for our team:

- restoration of external and internal utility systems (heating, electricity, water supply, and sewage);
- partial re-planning;
- roof repair;
- installing new windows and doors;
- interior finishing works;
- furnishing the rooms with furniture and household appliances;
- new fire alarm system;
- adaptation of part of the first floor for the needs of people with disabilities.

HOW IS CO-HATY HOUSING AT THE FORMER HOTEL FUNCTIONING?

The residents are already forming a community. Together, they cleaned the territory by the building, removed garbage, formed flower beds, and planted flowers. They also organize joint leisure activities for children and help each other.

The residents also receive support from charitable and social organizations, including the Right to Protection Fund, Rokada, Doctors Without Borders, Save the Children, the Ukrainian Red Cross Society, and a social project by L'Oreal.

CO-HATY IN VOGUE

The first printed issue of Vogue Ukraine Edition since the beginning of the full-scale invasion features an article about CO-HATY and the two co-founders of the project, Anna and Tania Pashynska. We are proud to see our closest teammates among the stories of 50 heroes and heroines of modern Ukraine.

CO-HATY EVENTS

In April, co-founder of the CO-HATY project Anna Pashynska participated in a discussion "How can Ivano-Frankivsk do more? Integration of IDPs, business relocation and the beginning of reconstruction," initiated by the Teple Misto platform. Also, she shared the experience of CO-HATY at the regional forum "The Voice of Civil Society in the Formation and Implementation of the Recovery Plan for Ukraine."

This month, CO-HATY housing was visited by the Potsdam delegation including Mayor Mike Schubert. Our cities have become partners, and the support of IDPs is one of the directions for our cooperation.

FUNDS

In April, our incomes amounted to UAH 12,236.00 of charitable contributions.

Project expenses were UAH 660,010.00.
